

My husband and I are both in our 80's and I can't tell you what a wonderful convenience the Do Not Call List has been for us. It is quite difficult to get up and answer the phone, hoping it is family or friends and only to find that it is some bothersome telemarketer that won't take no for an answer. Please, be considerate of our wishes and do not change this law.